

Teatru Manoel

WHO WE ARE

Teatru Manoel – The Theatre is a Public Cultural Organisation funded predominantly by the Government. As Malta’s national theatre, Teatru Manoel believes that everyone should have access to the arts, and therefore seeks to present as eclectic an annual programme of high-quality productions and events as possible covering the performing genres of music, drama and dance.

The Theatre also aims to be the major local platform for a wide pool of artists, both local and foreign to develop and freely express their creativity through dialogue with a diverse audience that enables mutual cultural enrichment. The theater produces its own productions, collaborates with other Public Cultural Organisations and third-party producers, and is a receiving house for independent productions.
